BOOK SUGGESTION for March:

Taste and See: Discovering God among butchers, bakers, and fresh food makers
by: Margaret Feinberg

Everlasting God,
because of your tender mercy
toward all people,
you sent your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ,
to take upon himself our flesh,
and to suffer death upon the cross,
that all should follow the example of his great humility.

Mercifully grant that we may follow the example of his patience and also be made partakers
of his resurrection;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

1 Peter 4:9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. 10 Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. 11 If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power

THIS IS THE GOOD NEWS:

While we were still sinners Jesus Christ died for us: "He Himself bore our sins" in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by His wounds you have been healed."

A TIME TO EXAMINE

The next 40 days, not counting Sundays, is a time for looking within ourselves and at our lives. It is a time to be thankful for all the many wonderful blessings that God has given us. It is a time to be prayerful for all the blessings He has given us. It is a time to be connected with God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit as we prepare for Easter. It is a time to be aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit all around us. It is a time to hear the voice of the Spirit calling us to faith in Christ. It is a time to examine our relationship with Christ. Is there something in your life that is keeping you from being the person Christ wants you to be? Lent is a perfect time to lay that habit, hurt or hangup on the altar and walk hand in hand with Jesus Christ.
