Chicken Stew Honoring

Veterans and Families

On November 9th, we will serve a chicken stew dinner at 5:30 p.m. Church members are asked to bring a dessert. If you can provide a dessert, please bring it to the church by 4:30 p.m. Thank you.

A donation was made to cover all the ingredients for the chicken stew by Doris Nugent in memory of Chief Master Sergeant James R. Nugent, who proudly served his country for 31 years and in honor of Chief Master Sergeant Mitchell D. Nugent, who proudly served his country for 28 years.

—United Methodist Men

If you have a picture of yourself or a family member that is or was a veteran and you would like it included in the slide show, please bring it to the church office.

THE BISHOP WILL BE AT

MEET and GREET 6:00 p.m.

Meeting begins at 7:00 PM

WORSHIP and COMMUNION FOLLOW

“Building Bridges to a Way Forward”

Bishop Wallace-Padgett will present a summary of the three proposals and share her perspective on the process as not only our Bishop but as a member of the Commission on the Way Forward. I hope you will join us as Bishop Wallace-Padgett will be presenting the three plans for the United Methodist Church to move forward that will be voted on during a special called General Conference on Feb 19-20.

“Becoming” NEEDS YOU!

“Becoming” ministry needs volunteers to help with sorting and organizing clothes. They also need people with a strong sense of fashion to meet with the ladies and help them choose professional clothing that will assist them in interviewing for a job.

PRAYER

Thank you Lord Jesus for your life and death on the cross. In Your life and death, dear Lord, You have shown me how much You love and cherish each of us and that our inheritance is eternal because of Your goodness and sacrifice.

Lord, help me to never take that for granted. Help me wear your love and grace as a crown of righteousness that I seek to share with any and all who will listen. Help me to remain humble in Your name and grace and to know I did not earn this crown but rather Your life, death and resurrection bestowed it upon me. I know this crown has already been paid for by Your blood, shed for all of us.

Lord help me to share the grace that is in my heart, a grace that enables me to always try, without fear of failure.

Help me dear Lord to share Your grace with all those I meet, a grace that calls me to be true to your values and vision for my life and the life of all your children. A grace that helps me to hold my head up and to never be overwhelmed by life or troubles.

Thank you Lord for making a way for me to be reconciled unto God and to once again be His child. AMEN
